

Africa Intelligence, the continent's daily

Online Monday to Friday from 5 a.m. GMT.

Produced by Indigo Publications, Africa Intelligence, the leading African news site for professionals, publishes daily exclusive information essential to understanding the local and regional challenges the continent faces today.

A STRONG EDITORIAL IDENTITY

Each issue, from Monday to Friday, is a carefully structured publication that prioritises each piece of information, all of which are selected for their strategic value.

Africa Intelligence takes a different approach to the content you might find elsewhere: our articles are exclusive and provide operative information.

Our readers are our sole source of revenue. The publication does not accept advertising, does no consultancy work and is free of any political or economic influence.

3 ANGLES FOR DECODING THE POWERS AT PLAY ACROSS THE CONTINENT

POLITICS

We shed light on the African leaders of tomorrow and detail the activities of those already in power, breaking down the relations between political authorities and business networks.

BUSINESS

We dig up the secrets of economic power, detail the structures of big corporations, pinpoint those working behind the scenes on major contracts and unravel their networks.

DIPLOMACY

We track the ups and downs of local and regional politics as well as geopolitical developments of both global powerhouses and emerging actors gaining influence on the continent.

TEST DRIVE OUR OFFER!

5 STRATEGIC SECTORS AT THE HEART OF OUR REPORTING

OIL AND GAS

Africa Intelligence identify the African experts working for the global oil & gas leaders as well as emerging juniors and outsiders, and go to the heart of power within the continent's main oil producing countries.

MINING

We unveil the strategies of mining actors across the continent and cover the entire mining chain: project finance, explorations, logistical challenges, negotiations with governments and local populations.

INFRASTRUCTURE AND POWER

Africa Intelligence's editorial team investigates the key construction projects of transport routes or hubs (road, rail, ports, airports and train stations) and electric infrastructure (power plants, high-voltage lines, etc.) across the continent.

DEFENCE AND SECURITY

We highlight the background to arms contract negotiations, discussions on counter-terrorism missions and security issues, as well as major military crises and conflicts and their geopolitical implications.

BANKING AND FINANCE

Africa Intelligence's editorial team sheds light on and anticipates the activities and projects of private banks and investment funds and deciphers the workings of offshore finance on the continent.

DON'T MISS OUT ON THE LONGER READS

While all our journalism is rigorous and thorough, we pace the daily issues with in-depth articles that span the week.

IN FOCUS

Every Monday, we publish a long investigative piece, that examines a topical issue in depth.

SPOTLIGHT

From Tuesday to Friday, we push to the fore a strategic piece of information with a fresh point of view.

INNER CIRCLES

Our Inner Circles section carefully maps out the web of the political and personal networks of the men and women in power across the continent.

RUNNING STORIES

We keep you informed of all the latest developments of issues that continue to hold interest over weeks, months or even years.
